50X1-HUM

1. A camp for political prisoners and an SNB training center are located near the Krhanice railroad station in Lesany (050/L86). The camp has a capacity of about 8,000 prisoners. Groups of prisoners are sent to work each day in a stone quarry. Women, who were formerly held in this camp, have been transferred to a special forced labor camp for women near Ceske Budejovice. The Enlightenment Officer of the Lesany camp is SNB Sergeant Antonin Sild. He is an StB agent and was formerly a railroad conductor at the Wilson Railroad Station in Prague, where he was vice-chairman of the Communist Party organization.
2. The SNB District Headquarters in Litomerice are located in a building adjacent to the prison. About 20 SNB members are attached to this office. The local headquarters of the SNB in Litomerice are located in front of the printing shop (sic). This office organizes political courses for SNB members, which are attended, as of October 1950, by about 100 students. SNB posts in the Litomerice area include the following:

Post	Strength
a. Trebusin	5 men
b. Ploskovice	4 men
c. Kresice	8 men
d. Bohusovice	7 men
e. Terezin	12 men

At Vojtanov (M51/P28) a one-month political indoctrination course for border guard units of the SNB is held. This course was attended in October 1950 by about 150 SNB members and was visited by Soviet military men.

3. The Litomerice offices of the StB are located on the second floor of the SNB District Headquarters Building of the SNB. Nine men and two women are attached to this office, which is under the control of the Regional Headquarters of the StB in Usti nad Labem.
4. The following units of the SNB border guard are located along the Czech-Bavarian border in the Domazlice area:
